Dear Christian Co-worker:

As the Holy Spirit opens doors, and pastor/church leaders provides opportunity, I am making myself available for opportunities to preach the gospel, or one of Bible-centered seminars within local churches. I have been born-again for approximately fifty years, and have been active in church ministry of one sort or the other for over forty years. My ministry gifts to the church include evangelism, teaching and preaching and hospitality through visitation. I am a graduate of Northwest Baptist Theological College, (B. Th.), Regent College (M. Div.), and Providence Theological Seminary (D. Min). Presently I am enrolled at Briercrest Seminary, Caronport, Saskatchewan on the Master of Arts in Leadership degree program.

During the period of 2007 – 2011 I pastored, as Lead Pastor, Harvest Christian Fellowship, Maple Ridge and since 2010 I have been ministering on a volunteer basis at Fleetwood Villa, Surrey two Sundays a month, and regularly each Tuesday night. From 2001 to 2012 my wife, Donna, and I have ministered in Romania seven times. Beyond the above, I have also ministered as the Protestant Chaplain on the Holland American Ship Lines in 2008 & 2009.

With this letter of introduction, I have enclosed a completed resume, copies of my college degrees, and letters of recommendations from others I have worked with in church ministry or whom I know as friends. With these documents I am also enclosing three positional papers, these being “My Call to Ministry”, “New Testament Leadership Principles”, and “Leadership Roles and Authenticity” which I hope will aid you and your board to gain insight to my view of ministry and pastoral leadership. You may also learn more about me by visiting my website <http://www.harvestoutreach.ca>. If you care to meet with me personally to discuss further my ministry views and aspirations, please phone me at (604) 760-7552 or email me at necemer@aol.com

Thanking you in advance for consideration this letter and attached information, I remain as a co-worker in Kingdom ministry

Yours truly,

Dr. Gordon E. Necemer, D. Min.

Also included with these letters is the RCMP Children's and Senior's Vulnerability Inspection obtained in 2013.

Other Documents Included:

Gordon's "Personal Call to Ministry", and "Biblical Elements of Pastoral Call" papers.

Although this resume is submitted, it is Gordon's hope that it will be only a guide in assessing his availability for ministry. Primary for him is that the Holy Spirit, through a Word of Knowledge to both parties will bring the applicable and profitable "connection" between him and the congregation so that in all things "He might receive all the praise and the glory in the church." Gordon's request for Pastoral Search Committees receiving this resume and the attached documents is that they would diligently seek the Lord through prayer and collaborative conversation in the whole body so the "mind and the will of the Lord will be known." Any "call for ministry" without this would be disappointing to the applicant.

Dear Gordon,

Thank you so much for coming to address our Generational Ministries Drop In at Cedar Grove today, Thursday, September 26, 2013. We are glad that Donna was able to accompany you. It was a delight to have you both with us. With your message on “Seniors’ Gifts: Extension of God’s Grace” illustrated by the life of John Newton, you greatly encouraged everyone. Those who were present greatly appreciated what you shared.

The writer of Proverbs wrote this interesting verse in 11:25:

*<sup>5</sup> The generous soul will be made rich,
And he who waters will also be watered himself.*

The Living Translation paraphrases it as:

those who refresh others will themselves be refreshed.*

On this day you “watered” our group – you “refreshed” us and we thank you for it. We trust that as you did, you too were refreshed.

As a token of our appreciation we are enclosing this gift card. Enjoy some “time out” and think of us as you do. Thanks again for coming!

With our gratitude,

I have known Gordon for the past ten years and have found him upright in character and fully committed to the Christian Church. I was Gordon's associate in ministry at the Harvest Christian Fellowship for three years and found him to be a very capable administrator and preacher.

Gordon has a passion for sharing his faith with others and a genuine desire to offer a helping hand to those in need. I believe that the goal for Gordon's quest for higher education is that he may serve the Lord in greater ways. I fully endorse him in any endeavor he might undertake to do, being fully confident that whatever it may be he will do it as if unto the Lord.

Sincerely,

John Williams

Christian Greetings:

To Whom It May Concern:
Re: Preaching Ministry Of Gordon Necemer

This is to affirm that I personally know Gordon Necemer and recommend him to your church or parachurch organization for preaching and ministry.

He, and his wife, Donna, have visited Romania three times, (2001, 2003, & 2006), and during these visits they resided, while in Timisoara, within my home, and ministered on a number of occasions in the four churches I pastor in Timisoara, Jebel, Sag, and Ciacova.

Gordon's ministry continuously has been biblically sound, enthusiastic, and of great encouragement to all my people. It is clearly evident, from his ministry, that he is wholeheartedly and unreservedly committed to Christ, to the gospel, and to the good welfare of His church. Through his preaching, prayer, and in-home fellowship with my congregants, many have been encouraged to a deeper, more meaningful personal walk with the Lord. His ministry has been of immense benefit within the churches I pastor, and I extend a warm invitation for him to speak again in them when he returns to Timisoara in the future.

Gordon and Donna have also ministered in many other Baptist Union Fellowship Churches throughout Romania over the last few years. Other pastors, likewise have commented that they have been encouraged and immensely blessed by their devotion to this country, and by their ministry done in both the large cities and small, poorer villages of Romania. If you need further information regarding Gordon's ministry here, please do not hesitate to email me; I will be pleased to respond to your inquiries.

Because of Gordon's love for Christ, his enthusiasm for preaching the gospel, and his devotion to edifying God's people everywhere he travels, I heartily recommend him to ministry within your church. From knowing Gordon personally, and experiencing his ministry in this country, I know that you will not be disappointed in the ministry he will provide.

Along with this recommendation I send Christian greetings to you, your congregation, and wherever these greetings may find welcome. God bless you richly as you minister together with our Lord in building His eternal kingdom at this time.

Yours, In Christ's Service,

Marius Ianc,
Senior Preaching Pastor

To Whom it may concern,

Gordon Necemer and his wife Donna visited Romania from September 25, 2003 – October 26, 2003. During this time my wife and I have enjoyed close fellowship with them.

As Coordinating Pastor of Emanuel Baptist Church, Oradea, I was responsible for the itinerate preaching of Gordon in both city and village churches throughout Romania. During this visit he spoke in 23 churches.

Throughout his stay here Gordon's love for the Lord, His word, and His church was clearly demonstrated wherever he spoke.

Pastors from our fellowship – The Baptist Union – had positive comments about Gordon's enthusiasm and desire to preach the word whenever he spoke.

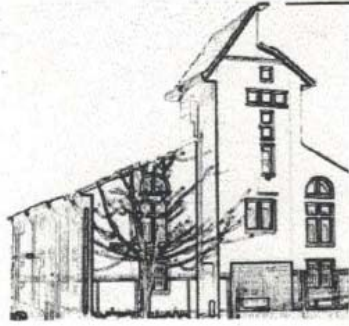

It was a pleasure to have Gordon visit us in this Country; we know God's time of blessing is upon him and the work he helping us to accomplish in kingdom outreach and growth.

As a pastor of Bethel Baptist Church of Botosani I was able to enjoy the time spent together with Gordon and Donna Necemer. We enjoyed the fellowship that we were able to have, to enjoy the worship services where Gordon preached the Word every evening in different churches from the area.

Their ministry here was a real blessing and encouragement for many people and we pray that God will continue to use them, to bless them and to reward them for everything that they are doing for God's glory.

Greetings and blessings may be unto you and to all God's children in the entire world that you will ever minister to. May God richly bless you all !!!

Re: Gordon Necemer

I have known Gordon for a number of years through a ministry at a local Assisted Living Facility, Fleetwood Villa in Surrey, B.C.

Gordon has been ministering to the residents there, and his work is sincerely appreciated by the folks gathered together every other Sunday morning for a worship service and every Tuesday evening for a bible study/hymn sing. Recently one resident was heard to say 'I just love the Tuesday evening bible study and hymn sing, and it makes my day'.

Gordon takes time out of his work schedule to volunteer there which is sincerely appreciated by the residents who come to serve God with him. His work as a volunteer at Fleetwood Villa in serving our Savior has as well been recognized by Fleetwood Villa, through volunteer appreciation day.

Gordon loves to serve this community of people and does so faithfully, with much zeal and purpose and it shows through the appreciation of the residents there.

LETTER OF REFERENCE for GORDON NECEMER

This is a personal and professional reference for Pastor/Mentor Gordon Necemer.

I have known Gordon Necemer for over five years now. Our initial meeting was what I would call a divine appointment, after which I had the privilege of attending Harvest Christian Fellowship for several years. Pastor Gordon embodied a Christ-centered life, sound biblical understanding and competent community ministry.

He is a teacher, scholar and proficient orator. He has become both a mentor and treasured friend. He and his wife Donna exemplify a Christian values based lifestyle that serves as an example for others to follow.

I have read a number of Pastor Gord's doctoral papers and part of his thesis thoroughly enjoying the content and our later discussions on the subject matter. He continually presents a rational biblical appreciation of salvation and the call to live a godly devoted life.

On a personal note, I have worked in the helping field for over thirty years as a youth worker, addictions counselor, professional counselor and college instructor.

Respectfully,

Doug Pamenter

Gordon Necemer is, in my opinion, eminently suited for the internship program in your Master of Divinity accreditation at UBC. I have known Mr Necemer personally for fifteen years and have met with him on a weekly basis over most of that time, including the present. He is a good, close Christian friend. We exchange views on our mutual Christian exposure to several evangelical outreaches. I have learned from Gord much about the love of God.

Gord exemplifies a Christian life and allocates his time over Biblical studies, travel to China, Roumania and South-East Asia to promote God's word.

He has a keen, analytical mind which will serve him well in his studies at your campus.

Gordon will benefit from the insights your courses provide and in serving pastoral needs.
